MARVEL
COMIC GROUP

a letter to our readers and their PARENTS!

HI, FRIENDS:

It has been reliably reported that in England, back in the 18th Century, book stores were called "slop shops of literature," simply because they sold novels. And that was the century in which some of our greatest classics were written; the century of Defoe, who wrote Robinson Crusoe, and Swift and his Gulliver's Travels. It was also the century of Dr. Samuel Johnson, one of the brightest stars in the history of English literature. And it was Dr. Johnson who most vociferously defended the right of booksellers to sell the new, much abused novels and the right of authors to express themselves in this medium if they desired.

But what Dr. Johnson defended most enthusiastically was the right of the public to read what they wanted to read. And what we are defending is the right of youngsters to read whichever they like of the many, many good, clean comics currently being published.

Just as the critics of the 18th Century rapped the books which are now classics, in the same way there are critics of today, screaming and tearing out their hair, because a new kind of magazine, still in its infancy, is not to their liking. And as in the case of the novel, it is still too early for any man to pass judgment on the comics.

Let these critics of today look to their history. Let them decide if they want to be remembered as the 20th Century counterpart of the people who called Robinson Crusoe "slop".

And let the people of America decide if they want to be swayed by critics exercising premature judgment . . . or if they want to wait and watch, and soon realize that most comic magazines are really good, clean, healthful and entertaining reading matter..

THE EDITORS,
MARVEL COMIC GROUP

P. S.—Remember: Dr. Jean Thompson, School Psychiatrist, Child Guidance Bureau, New York City Board of Education, is now our Editorial Consultant. Dr. Thompson's professional examination of our magazines, as advisor to our staff, (see Page 1) is your guarantee that the Marvel Comic Group magazines are striving to bring you the very best in reading matter . . . and it is also your best argument that no one should ever take away your right to read these magazines.

THE CLOWN

"JILL, I don't know why you rush to the defense of Skip whenever his name is mentioned. Everyone knows what a character he is!" With that, Dorrie sipped up the last of her malted as if there were nothing more to be said on the subject.

But Jill felt she was on the spot and she had to say something. "Oh, Dorrie, I don't rush to his defense. I just don't like to see everybody step on the guy just because he's goodhearted and sort of funny."

"Sort of funny! He's strictly a circus! And you know as well as I that he may be an okay guy with the boys, but no girl at Hopwood High would be caught dating him if he were the . . ."

"Quiet, Dorrie! He's coming in now." Both girls turned their heads to the door just in time to see Skip Hawkins come bounding in, surrounded by his small band of loyal followers. All the boys were laughing as usual, and it was easy to see that Skip was the center of attention. He was dressed like the others in blue jeans and sweaters, except for his typical added attractions: a bright red and yellow beanie with a pinwheel on top of it that moved with his every motion, a bowtie that lighted small green and orange bulbs at strategic intervals, and a bright pink carnation in his buttonhole that looked ready to squirt water at the first gullible chum to approach him.

"C'mon, Jill, let's get out of here—fast I've got things to do, and I don't want that clown disrupting my plans!" Dorrie scooped up her books, and Jill followed.

But they were too late. Skip had spotted them. "What, ho, my fair young damsels! Don't you see that your gallant knight has just arrived? Where can you be off to in such a mad dash? Methinks trickery is afoot! Halt—and shake the hand of your boon companion!"

He was standing directly in the girls' path so they had to stop. And Dorrie was in front so she had to shake his hand first. But as soon as her hand was in his, she let out a yell of surprise and stepped quickly back. Skip proudly exhibited his palm to the delight of his friends. It had concealed a small mechanical buzzer.

Dorrie indignantly stomped out of the Ice Cream Shoppe. Jill followed her, but she couldn't help flashing a quick smile at Skip. She was sure he hadn't hurt Dorrie—and he was funny!

"You see what I mean?" Dorrie was still annoyed on the way home. "Can't you just imagine that character at the Athletic Club dance? I certainly pity the girl that gets stuck with him! But, of course, no one will. It would simply mean the finish of anyone's social reputation!"

"He always goes stag anyhow," Jill put in.

"I know." Dorrie said quickly, "just so he can be free to play some more of his tricks! But this dance isn't stag!"

The girls had reached Jill's house by this time so they said their good-byes and parted. But Jill's thoughts were no longer on Skip as she walked into the house, but rather on the Athletic Club dance. It was scheduled for Friday, only four days away, and she didn't have a date yet. It wasn't a formal dance, but it was the most important sweater-and-skirt affair of the whole year. The boys even gave special favors to the girls they invited—flowers or a bracelet or a locket, and going to this dance practically meant that a boy would also ask his date to the next big formal.

STAMP NEWS

By KENT B. STILES

Veteran philatelic observers will not be surprised to learn that 1948 has been a prolific calendar year numerically. It will be March or April of 1949 before final figures become available so that 1948's total can be accurately known but it is possible to estimate at this writing that from 2,500 to 2,600 major and minor varieties are the output of more than 150 of the world's Governments. Not since 1942, when more than 3,000 varieties were issued, has there been a postal deluge exceeding the one in 1948.

There, in the bizonal section occupied by American and British forces the postal authorities were allowed to issue their own stamps; and as these lines are being written, 42 varieties have been recorded. In the section occupied by French forces the latter permitted Baden to have one series of stamps, Rheinland-Pfalz another, Saar another, and Wurttemberg another; this situation brought at least 65 more varieties. In the Soviet zone the Russians provided nearly 100 overprinted stamps, and in the Anglo-American part of Berlin more than 100 overprinted items appeared. Thus in this trouble spot alone more than 300 varieties were produced.

China offers another example. As newspaper readers know, political turmoil existed in China, and stamp-issuing reflects that development. Economic conditions resulted in inflation, and ever-increasingly high-denomination stamps became necessary. At least 70 varieties were issued in China.

WORLD'S LARGEST STAMP!
A real curiosity! A stamp so large (7½x14 inches) it will occupy a full page in your album. Retails for 50c. Given FREE to approval service applicants sending 3c postage. STAMPS: All diff., 500, $1; 1000, $2.

BUY BONDS!!!

Occupied with these thoughts, Jill only heard a faint noise in the background when the phone rang. But it was insistent, and she came to with a start. Excitedly, she ran to the phone at the other end of the hall.

"Hello," she said hopefully.

"Hiya, gal, here's your pal!" the unmistakable voice on the other end of the wire greeted her.

"Skip?" Jill asked after a moment. Why should Skip be calling her?

"No one else!" he answered jovially. "Say, kid. . . ." Could Skip be hesitating? Curious, Jill waited. "Ah—the reason I called—uh, well, I wondered if you might condescend to trip the light fantastic with me at the dance Friday night! And I can't promise you that with me it won't be really fantastic!"

"The—the dance?" Jill was dazed. Should she go with Skip and maybe have her social life ruined? On the other hand, why should her social life be blighted by a date with Skip? Everybody liked her, and why shouldn't she stand up for her rights? After all, she didn't think Skip was so terrible. If he just had a slight sentimental streak, he'd be almost perfect! She made her mind up quickly. "Oh, you mean the Athletic Club dance. Why, of course, Skip, why not?"

"Okay, kid, it's a date then. I'll call for you at eight Friday, and let's keep it a surprise that we're going to it together. All right?" Jill agreed, and he continued, "By the way, what color skirt will you be wearing?"

"Why—green, I guess."

"Green? That's wonderful. Well, so long, gal. See you Friday!" And he hung up. So did Jill—but she sat by the phone, gradually realizing the enormity of what she'd done. What could the other girls think of her making a date with the school clown? But wait—Skip had said not to tell anyone ahead of time so, at least, they wouldn't know till it happened. But why had he said that? And why had he asked about the color of her skirt? Oh, of course—he must be planning to bring her flowers. How sweet! Maybe Skip had a sentimental streak after all, and maybe that would make him okay with the girls as well as with the boys. But then again it was more probable that he just thought she was kinder to him than most of the other girls and could take his jokes in her stride.

The week seemed endless to Jill—the girls were never so curious about her date before, and Skip didn't make it any easier. He seemed to disappear after every class so that she never had a chance to ask him anything about Friday night, and even his boy friends didn't seem to know where he was burying himself. But finally Friday night rolled around, and so did Skip—promptly at eight.

His ring was long and typically Skip. But, strangely subdued, he greeted her, "Hello, Jill." He was even dressed like every other boy was probably dressed for the dance that night—in a good-looking sport coat and neatly pressed slacks. And he was carrying two boxes. He looked Jill's outfit over carefully before he handed her the larger one. "I—uh—you may not like it, but I—er. . . ."

He watched Jill expectantly, warily, as she untied the string and lifted the cover of the box. She gasped when she saw what was inside. "Skip! A sweater! A yellow cashmere sweater! And it's handknit! Don't tell me you. . . ."

Skip held up a hand for silence, looked cautiously around, and then almost whispered, "Yes, I made it." He sounded almost tragic. "My mother taught me how to knit when I was small and got laid up for a while with a broken leg—and I like to knit! But not many of the kids would understand if they knew. That's why I didn't want anyone to know ahead of time—I figured it might be bad enough when they finally see the evidence. I just thought that you. . . ."

"Why, Skip, I think it's the nicest thing you could have given me. And I'm sure all the girls will think so, too. It's so beautifully sentimental!"

"Well, in case they don't, I brought you something to wear with it." He hurriedly undid the other package Inside was a corsage of imitation gardenias. Skip pressed the little bulb at one end of the wire attached to the corsage, and it lit up with the words, "So what?"

Jill laughed. "So nothing! Let's go!"

"I WAS ASHAMED OF MY FACE

until Viderm made my dreams of a clearer skin come true in one short week"

(FROM A LETTER TO BETTY MEMPHIS SENT HER BY ETHEL JORDAN, DETROIT, MICH.)

If your face is broken out, if bad skin is making you miserable, here is how to stop worrying about pimples, blackheads and other externally caused skin troubles.

JUST FOLLOW SKIN DOCTOR'S SIMPLE DIRECTIONS

"I just want to be alone!" Is there anything more awful than the blues that come when your face is broken out and you feel like hiding away because of pimples, blackheads and similar externally caused skin troubles? I know how it feels from personal experience. And I can appreciate the wonderful, wonderful joy that Ethel S. Jordan felt when she found something that not only promised her relief—but gave it to her in just one short week!

When I was having my own skin troubles, I tried a good many cosmetics, ointments and whatnot that were recommended to me. I remember vividly how disappointed I felt each time, until I discovered the skin doctor's formula now known as the Double Viderm Treatment. I felt pretty wonderful when friends began to rave about my "movie-star skin." No more self-consciousness. No more having my friends feel sorry for me. The secret joy, again, of running my fingertips over a smoother, clearer skin.

Many women shut themselves out of the thrills of life—dates, romance, popularity, social and business success—only because sheer neglect has robbed them of the good looks, poise and feminine self-assurance which could so easily be theirs. Yes, everybody looks at your face. The beautiful complexion, which is yours for the asking, is like a permanent card of admission to all the good things of life that every woman craves. And it really can be yours —take my word for it!—no matter how discouraged you may be this very minute about those externally caused skin miseries.

A screen star's face is her fortune. That's why she makes it her business to protect her complexion against pimples, blackheads and blemishes. Your face is no different. Give it the Double Treatment it needs and watch those skin blemishes go away.

What Makes "Bad Skin" Get That Way?

Medical science gives us the truth about how skin blemishes usually develop. There are small specks of dust and dirt in the air all the time. When these get into the open pores in your skin, they can in time "stretch" the pores and make them large enough to pocket dirt particles, dust and infection. These open pores become infected and bring you the humiliation of pimples, blackheads or other blemishes. Often, the natural oils that lubricate your skin will harden in the pores and result in unsightly blemishes.

When you neglect your skin by not giving it the necessary care, you leave yourself wide open to externally caused skin miseries. Yet proper attention with the Double Viderm Treatment may mean the difference between enjoying the confidence a fine skin gives you or the embarrassment of an ugly, *un*beautiful skin that makes you want to hide your face.

The Double Viderm Treatment is a formula prescribed with amazing success by a dermatologist and costs you only a few cents daily. This treatment consists of two jars. One contains Viderm Skin Cleanser, a jelly-like formula which penetrates your pores and acts as an antiseptic. After you use this special Viderm Skin Cleanser, you simply apply the Viderm Fortified Medicated Skin Cream. You rub this in, leaving an almost invisible protective covering for the surface of your skin.

This double treatment has worked wonders for so many cases of external skin troubles that it may help you, too —in fact, your money will be refunded if it doesn't. Use it for only ten days. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose. It is a guaranteed treatment. Enjoy it. Your dream of a clearer, smoother complexion may come true in ten days or less.

Use your Double Viderm Treatment every day until your skin is smoother and clearer. Then use it only once a week to remove stale make-up and dirt specks that infect your pores, as well as to aid in healing external irritations. Remember that when you help prevent blackheads, you also help to prevent externally caused skin miseries and pimples.

Just mail your name and address to Betty Memphis, care of the New York Skin Laboratory, 206 Division Street, Dept. 1 , New York 2, N. Y. By return mail you will receive the doctor's directions, and both jars, packed in a safety-sealed carton. On delivery, pay two dollars plus postage. If you wish, you can save the postage fee by mailing the two dollars with your letter. Then, if you are in any way dissatisfied, your money will be cheerfully refunded. To give you an idea of how fully tested and proven the Viderm Double Treatment is, it may interest you to know that, up to this month, over two hundred and thirty-one thousand women have ordered it on my recommendation. If you could only see the thousands of happy, grateful letters that have come to me as a result, you would know the joy this simple treatment can bring. And, think of it!—the treatment must work for you, or it doesn't cost you a cent.
